Read the text carefully

Tim is a Canadian boy. He lives in Ottawa. He lives with his family in a modern house. He is twelve years old and he has an older brother, David, and a younger sister, Emma.

He starts his day at about half-past seven. He gets up, goes to the bathroom, takes a shower, brushes his teeth, and gets dressed. Then he has breakfast and at a quarter to eight, he leaves home and catches the bus to school.

Classes begin at half-past eight. He usually has lunch at the school canteen at half-past twelve. After school, at a quarter past five, he goes home. There he does his school homework and when he finishes it he helps his Mum lay the table. At half-past seven the family dines together.

Tim is a very helpful boy, so he helps his mother clean up everything after dinner.

He usually watches TV for a while after dinner and at about ten o'clock at the most he brushes his teeth again, puts on his Iron Man pajamas, and goes to bed. His parents always kiss him good night before he gets asleep. Tim is a very happy boy!
