Read the Following Text

Indonesia has many beautiful recreation places. There are beaches, lakes, mountains, waterfalls, temples, zoos, and many other interesting places. Every year, more than five million foreign tourists come to Indonesia. The amount of domestic tourists is about ten million. The tourists come to enjoy the beautiful panorama and for leisure.

In East Java, you can enjoy fantastic beaches, volcanoes, a national park, a safari park, and also a botanical garden. If you like to enjoy the sunset and sunrise while playing on the beach sand you can go to Pasir Putih Beach in Situbondo or Balekambang Beach in Southern Malang. If you want to go hiking you can go to Mount Bromo in Probolinggo or to Mount Penanggungan in Trawas. For those who want to learn about plants and also have a picnic, they can go to Purwodadi Botanical Garden or to Kaliandra in Prigen.

Answer the Questions Correctly.

It is Bromo mountain. It is an active volcano mountain in East Java. It is located in four regions, they are: Probolinggo, Pasuruan, Lumajang, and Malang.

From the parking area, we can rent a jeep. People usually go to Bromo at dawn to see the sunrise. The sunrise looks so beautiful if we look at it from there.

After seeing the sunrise, we can go to the peak of Bromo. We can hike to get to the extreme. We can also rent a horse to ride a halfway, and for another halfway, we must walk by climbing the stairs to the peak.

There is a temple at Bromo called Poten Temple at the foot of Bromo. It is a Hindu Temple because residents there are primarily Hindu.

We can also go to the Pasir Berbisik. It is a large sea of sand. It is called "berbisik," which means whisper, because when the wind blows, we can hear a sound like the sand whispering to us. The air there is so fresh and cool. Let's visit Bromo Mountain one day!
